How Places are allocated to the Nursery School

The Nursery School offers 15 hours free early education and free 30 hours places for parents who work (The 30 hours would not be shared between schools). These places are allocated by date of birth rather than date of admission. The exception to this will be for two year olds who have started in the Nursery School, moving onto the three and four year olds classes.

Parents/carers are informed when their child's place has been allocated.

Breakfast, After School and Daycare sessions are available on request in addition to 15 hours for 2-5s. These are paid for by parents/carers. These can be accessed through the Daycare provision. A signed contract and deposit is required before additional sessions can begin. The ratio is one adult to four 2-3's children and one adult to eight 3-5's children. The adults are staff members the children know already through their Nursery School class sessions throughout the day. Maximum in the After School provision is twelve children to two qualified members of staff.
